Private Client

Corporate

Our acclaimed Private Client team is widely recognised for the quality of advice and service which its lawyers provide. The team focuses on developing long-term relationships with its clients by taking the time to understand their circumstances and overall objectives. Many of our clients are high net worth individuals who have built their wealth over the years through a variety of endeavours, and the Private Client team is particularly adept at advising on ways to protect that wealth for future generations.

We are experienced in working with both domestic and international clients and understand the range of different needs which those clients and their families will have.

What makes us different?

- We have a genuine interest in our clients and their families. We want to understand their motivations, their concerns and the different dynamics which make each family unique. Most importantly, we listen. We willingly invest time from the inception of our relationship with clients in order to discover what they are really hoping to achieve from a succession and tax planning perspective. Once that is understood, we can begin to advise.
- We understand that every client is different, and this means that our lawyers always seek to apply fresh thinking so that we can create bespoke solutions. We help our clients consider their options and make informed decisions on the best course of action for them.

- Our lawyers are intelligent advisers who are fully up to date with the latest developments in their areas of expertise, and use that knowledge for their clients' benefit. As well as displaying technical excellence, they are emotionally intelligent and have the interpersonal skills needed to deal with sensitive and confidential matters.
- We recognise the importance of providing a highly responsive and personal approach to our clients. We are always pleased to assist and aim to do so without delay.
- We have built working relationships with successive generations of families who have stayed with us for many years because they know they can rely on us when they need to.
- By listening to our clients, we excel in identifying issues which can be addressed by other teams across the firm such as Family, Residential Property, Corporate Immigration, and Employment.
